

The course is an out-and-back beginning at the Jackson YMCA traversing behind Jackson High School and through the Jackson South Park, across Fulton Dr., with a short stint through a neighborhood, then into the Jackson North Park from the west onto the running path and back out returning to the YMCA in the reverse direction. The course is flat to rolling and very scenic.

